Ordinance 25-82: Amendment to the Unified Development Ordinance (LPH/Community PUD District
Presented by: Daine Crabtree/Council Sponsor: Joe Duepner

First Reading: November 24, 2025

APC Public Hearing: December 1, 2025

APC Workshop: Waived

APC Recommendation: January 14, 2026

Adoption Consideration: January 26, 2026

Kevin Todd was online to present. This ordinance proposes a general business underlying PUD located at the NE corner of 196th and East Street, across from the future Community Hospital. Community Health owns the land which was annexed in October 2025. Community Health is looking to partner with Lifepoint Health to create an extension for a behavioral health facility, which would be taxable.

Addison Bradford, (in-person) along with Joe Caesar (who was virtual) spoke regarding questions that they had received about the facility. Community Hospital will maintain its own security for the campus, which includes the acute care hospital and the behavioral health facility. The security staff will consist of 15 officers, with 3 officers on duty per shift, costing $2–3M per year, which will be absorbed by Community Health. The average length of stay of the patients is 7 to 10 days. Patients who need additional services would be transferred to a 60–90-day more permanent facility. Mr. Bradford reiterated that there are no development incentives being requested, the inpatient rehab facility would be fully taxable and not part of the pilot agreement made with the adjacent hospital. There are 8 inpatient facilities in Marion County. This would be the first in Hamilton County. The question was asked if Kokomo had a facility like this, to which Mr. Bradford replied he did not believe so, but the majority of the patients would be coming from Community Hospital Westfield. There was continued discussion. Mayor Willis stated the whole process with Lifepoint has been disappointing, and feels the council is in a difficult position, making a very important decision for the community without a lot of data.

The motion to approve was made by: Councilor Dartt
Seconded by: Councilor McCarty
Vote: Yes-3, No-4. (N. Herron, C. Huff, P. Tamm, K. Wanninger). Motion failed.

Ordinance 26-02: WWS PUD Amendment I

Staff Planner: Ryan Collingwood/Council Sponsor: Victor McCarty

First Reading: January 12, 2026

APC Public Hearing: January 14, 2026

APC Recommendation: January 14, 2026

Adoption Consideration: January 26, 2026

Ryan Collingwood presented virtually. This is an amendment to the Westfield Washington Schools PUD district located northeast of the intersection at SR32 and Centennial Rd. The amendment is requesting to modify the landscape plan, which would control the development. Additional real estate is being added to the PUD, as well as an update to the concept plan now that site work has progressed.

The motion to approve was made by: Councilor Wanninger
Seconded by: Councilor Huff
Vote: Yes-7; No-0. Motion carried.

NEW BUSINESS

Ordinance 26-03: BUILT PUD

Staff Planner: Lauren Gillingham-Teague/Council Sponsor: Kurt Wanninger

First Reading: January 26, 2026

APC Public Hearing: February 2, 2026

APC Workshop: March 16, 2026

APC Recommendation: April 6, 2026

Adoption Consideration: April 13, 2026

Lauren Gillingham-Teague virtually introduced the BUILT PUD proposed to be located on the southwest corner of SR32 and Gray Road and north of the Midland Trace Trail. The subject real estate is approximately 11 acres in size for both areas A and B. The ordinance proposes the development of makerspace business suites on the northwest half of the site, leaving the remainder for future trail-oriented commercial development. The PUD as proposed, requires area A to be developed in substantial conformity with the architectural elevations, site plan, and landscape plan in the PUD. Area B is required to come back to council review prior to any future development.

Lisa Claghorn of Church Chruch Hittle and Antrim gave a presentation overview of the commercial makerspace facility. The facility will be designed to support entrepreneurship, workforce training, and small-scale fabrication, with the intent of providing workspaces for small business owners. The BUILT team has worked with city staff to create buildings that reflect a contemporary character appropriate to the makerspace environment by using durable materials, appropriate building scale and compliant lighting and sign standards. Ms. Claghorn noted the comments received from council regarding permitted uses. Council overwhelmingly supports the project but feels the language pertaining to permitted uses needs tightening

MEMORANDUM

January 30, 2026

TO: Westfield-Washington City Council Members

FROM: Lauren Gillingham-Teague, AICP – Senior Planner

CC: Westfield Community Development Staff

SUBJECT: UDO Patch – Signs; rev. 1/30/2026

EXHIBITS:

1. Memorandum
2. Proposed Ord. 26-01
3. Redline of Ord. 26-01

---

Brief overview of revisions:

Art. 12.1 Definitions

Adds definitions for “Agricultural District” and “District”, and modifies the definition of “Residential District” to better align the terms used in this sign code and the UDO as a whole, which is inconsistent from chapter to chapter.

Modifies the definition of Incidental Sign to add content-neutral review criteria for determining if a sign can be classified as an Incidental Sign. Incidental Signs are permanent signs designed and located to be read by people within a specific site or development, and is most commonly used for directional or informational signs. Because this classification can apply to signs ranging anywhere from a small decal on a gas pump to a 6-foot-tall directional sign at a hospital, a degree of Director discretion is key in order to allow necessary signs without creating opportunities for the code to be abused.

Under this criteria, the Director (or a staff member) shall determine whether a sign is an Incidental Sign based on the visibility of the sign from the lot line or right-of-way, the number of signs in close proximity of each other, and/or the presence of a commercial message. While an Incidental Sign could have a commercial message, it will typically be a smaller than the informational message the sign is trying to convey, as shown in the images below.

All Incidental Signs shall be subject to this additional scrutiny, but wall, window, and post signs under 3 square feet in area and 3 feet in height shall not require a permit. Incidental Signs shall not deduct from the sign area allocation of a site. Large Incidental Signs, such as those for hospitals and campuses, are permitted only in Nonresidential Centers.

Art. 6.17(E) Prohibitions

Adds prohibitions on signs affixed to accessory structures and signs placed on a movable waste container or temporary storage container for the primary purpose of displaying the sign.

Art. 6.17(F) Sign Installation and Maintenance

Adds language found elsewhere in the UDO related to enforcement and removal of abandoned signs and signs in a long-term state of disrepair.

Art. 6.17(G) Sign Lighting

Adds missing word; clarifies separation of agricultural and residential districts.

Art. 6.17(I) Murals

Clarifies that standards apply to murals in nonresidential and multi-family districts. Murals on residential homes will continue to be regulated by HOAs. Due to the protections of the First Amendment, these standards apply only to commercial messages – a government cannot legally regulate the content of political or noncommercial murals.

The intent of these standards is not to permit murals carte blanche across the City, but rather define what is and isn't a mural and establish standards restricting the size of a commercial message within a mural. At this time, there are no regulations on murals – a building owner is permitted to paint a mural on his or her building as they please without City input or approval. It makes no difference whether it's a pleasant artistic design or a giant commercial logo (as shown below on a Carl's Jr restaurant), it would technically be permitted under the existing code. With the new code, the mural containing the giant logo would be considered a wall sign and deduct from the total sign area allocation of the site, restricting the overall size of the logo and the amount of signage permitted elsewhere on the building.

That being said, there is a provision allowing a small, 2 sq ft acknowledgement panel honoring the sponsors of the art or highlighting the mural artist's logo or social media page, similar to the mural shown below.

Art. 6.17(J)(5) Ground Signs

Clarifies applicable districts; corrects prior omission of the maximum base height for Center Signs.

Art. 6.17(L)(4)(c) Incidental Signs

Provides review criteria for Incidental Signs in Nonresidential Centers, intended for hospitals, campuses, office parks, etc.

Art. 6.17(L)(6) Gasoline Service Stations

Adds clarifying language for gas stations in Nonresidential Centers.

Art. 6.17(M)(2) Temporary Freestanding Sign for Nonresidential Uses

Adds duration and frequency limits for sign type, requires a 90-day cool down period between permits.

Art. 6.17(N) Signs Not Requiring a Permit

Adds government traffic control, wayfinding, directional, identification, and informational signs.

Clarifies type and size of Incidental Signs permitted without a permit.

MEMORANDUM

January 28, 2026

TO: Westfield-Washington City Council Members; Advisory Plan Commission Members

FROM: Ryan Collingwood – Senior Associate Planner

CC: Westfield Community Development Staff

SUBJECT: UDO Patch – Minor Subdivisions & Water Applicability

EXHIBITS: 1. Memorandum
2. Ord. 26-07

Overview & Background

Please use this memo as a reference when reviewing proposed Ord. 26-07.

The subject UDO patch concerns itself with the application of water systems in regard to Minor Subdivisions within the AG-SF1: Agricultural / Single-family Rural Zoning District. Where public water systems may not be available, this patch would officially allow Minor Subdivisions in more-rural areas of the Township to utilize non-public water systems (well water) to gain access to water.

The patch essentially solidifies the procedure for water applicability in differing areas of the community.
